

GRAND LISBOA HOTEL

Soaring above the heart of Macau Peninsula's dynamic cultural, shopping and entertainment district, Grand Lisboa Hotel is an iconic architecture inspired by Macau's lotus symbol and reflecting the city's history and heritage. Surrounded by the city's best-loved attractions, the hotel is only a 15-minute and a 5-minute's drive away from the Macau International Airport and the Macau Maritime Ferry Terminal, respectively, providing total convenience for both travelling business executives and holidaymakers alike. The hotel has over 400 beautifully appointed rooms and suites, featuring plush interiors and unrivalled views that offer an unforgettable experience of luxury, comfort and style. With a wide variety of dining options, including the three-starred French restaurant Robuchon au Dôme, the three-starred Cantonese restaurant The Eight, the one-starred steakhouse The Kitchen, and Casa Don Alfonso. Also a paradise for wine lovers, the hotel boasts an extensive collection of over 16,900 labels, the majority of which are rated over 91 by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate. For total relaxation and rejuvenation, The Spa at Grand Lisboa offers a comprehensive range of results-driven treatments using the advanced products. The overall leisure facilities also include a state-of-the-art fitness centre, an outdoor temperature-controlled swimming pool and a hair salon.
